PLYMOUTH COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE CONTINUES FIGHT AGAINST AUTO INSURANCE FRAUD

BROCKTON – The Plymouth County District Attorney's Office has been awarded $50,000 from the Insurance Fraud Bureau of Massachusetts, and in coordination with the Commissioner of Insurance, to fight automobile insurance fraud in Brockton and Plymouth County, District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

The Insurance Fraud Bureau of Massachusetts (the "IFB"), created the Community Insurance Fraud Initiative, which consists of specialized taskforces with local law enforcement agencies in the communities of Brockton, Boston, Chelsea, Fall River/New Bedford, Lawrence, Lowell, Lynn, Randolph, Revere, Springfield/Holyoke and Worcester. The taskforces join IFB investigators, local police, District Attorney's Offices, the Attorney General and insurance company investigators in the collaborative detection, investigation, prevention and prosecution of insurance fraud in the residual motor vehicle insurance market.

DA Cruz first partnered with the IFB and the Brockton Police Department in 2004. The funding delivered today will supplement and support, in part, the participation of the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office in the Community Insurance Fraud Initiative. DA Cruz accepted the grant today from Daniel J. Johnston, executive director of the IFB. The $50,000 is funded by Arbella Mutual Insurance Company, as part of a program in coordination with the Commissioner of Insurance and the IFB.

"Insurance fraud is a crime and an abuse of the system and we all pay the price for it," DA Cruz said. "This joint task force has had a major impact on reducing auto insurance fraud here in the City of Brockton and has also been a major factor in reducing premiums for policy holders across the state. We look forward to continuing this successful partnership with the Commissioner and the Insurance Fraud Bureau of Massachusetts."

IFB Executive Director Daniel J. Johnston said, "This unified task force approach to fight fraud in areas most plagued by this crime has shown it is working in 13 cities across the state. The results in Brockton remain successful, largely because the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office and the Brockton Police Department, in partnership with the Insurance Fraud Bureau of Massachusetts, are dedicated to their fraud-fighting and prosecution efforts."
