10 PEOPLE ARRESTED OR SUMMONSED TO COURT BY STATE POLICE, BROCKTON POLICE AS PART OF OPERATION BROCKTON SURGE

BROCKTON – State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney’s Office along with Brockton Police arrested or summonsed to court 10 people last night as part of a continued effort to keep Brockton streets safe, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

On Wednesday, at approximately 6 p.m. State Police troopers and Brockton Police officers conducted undercover operations, executed a search warrant and performed motor vehicle stops around the city of Brockton. The search warrant was executed without incident at 192 North Warren Avenue and three occupants were arrested after officers discovered they were driving a stolen motor vehicle. Additionally, police recovered approximately four grams of Fentanyl, a realistic looking Airsoft gun and approximately 40 boxes of Newport cigarettes. Two other people were found to have outstanding warrants.

“State Police and Brockton Police will continue to work cooperatively on efforts like this one to make an impact on public safety in the city and help keep residents of Brockton safe this summer,” DA Cruz said.
