ABINGTON MAN INDICTED ON RAPE CHARGES

BROCKTON – An Abington man has been indicted on rape charges, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

Today, a Plymouth County Grand jury voted to indict Richard Curtain, 28, of Abington, on four counts of rape.

The indictments follow an investigation by Abington Police and State Police as women came forward with allegations against Curtain. Curtain has been arraigned on charges involving a separate victim and that case is pending in the Superior Court.

Curtain will be arraigned in superior court on today's charges at a later date.

Assistant District Attorney Amanda Fowle is prosecuting the case, which was investigated by Abington Police and Massachusetts State Police.
