EAST BRIDGEWATER MAN ARRAIGNED ON RAPE AND KIDNAPPING CHARGES

BROCKTON – An East Bridgewater man was arraigned in Brockton District Court today on several counts of rape, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz and East Bridgewater Police Chief Michael Jenkins have announced.

Mohamed Salieu Jalloh, 25, was charged with five counts of Rape, one count of Kidnapping, one count of Assault and Battery on a Family or Household Member, two counts of Threat to Commit a Crime, and two counts of Delivering Liquor to a Person under 21. Jalloh is being held without bail pending a dangerousness hearing scheduled for January 8, 2026.

On Wednesday, East Bridgewater Police received reports that an 18-year-old woman had been assaulted and victimized multiple times by Jalloh at his residence in East Bridgewater between December 27 and December 31 after meeting her on a dating app. Investigators arrested Jalloh following their preliminary investigation, leading to today's arraignment. At the time of his arrest, Jalloh was out on bail with GPS monitoring in unrelated, pending cases. His bail was revoked during today's hearing.
