HULL MAN WHO DIED FOLLOWING APPARENT DROWNING OFF THE COAST OF NANTASKET BEACH IDENTIFIED

HULL – A man who died following an apparent drowning off the coast of Nantasket Beach Wednesday has been identified as 76-year-old Robert Nolan of Hull, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced.

On Wednesday evening Hull Fire Department personnel responded to a report of an unresponsive man found floating in the waters near Nantasket Beach. The man, later identified as Nolan, was pronounced deceased by first responders at about 8:40 p.m. while still at the scene. Technicians from the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner later took custody of Nolan's body to be transported back to their office for examination.

No foul play is currently suspected in this incident.
